Jesus Raises the Daughter of Jairus

Luke 8:40-56

So it was, when Jesus returned, that the multitude welcomed Him, for they were all waiting for Him.

{41} And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And he fell down at Jesus' feet and begged Him to come to his house, {42} for he had an only daughter about twelve years of age, and she was dying.

But as He went, the multitudes thronged Him. {43} Now a woman, having a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her livelihood on physicians and could not be healed by any, {44} came from behind and touched the border of His garment. And immediately her flow of blood stopped.

{45} And Jesus said, "Who touched Me?" When all denied it, Peter and those with him said, "Master, the multitudes throng and press You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?'" {46} But Jesus said, "Somebody touched Me, for I perceived power going out from Me."

{47} Now when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before Him, she declared to Him in the presence of all the people the reason she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately. {48} And He said to her, "Daughter, be of good cheer; your faith has made you well. Go in peace."

{49} While He was still speaking, someone came from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher." {50} But when Jesus heard it, He answered him, saying, "Do not be afraid; only believe, and she will be made well."

{51} When He came into the house, He permitted no one to go in except Peter, James, and John, and the father and mother of the girl. {52} Now all wept and mourned for her; but He said, "Do not weep; she is not dead, but sleeping." {53} And they ridiculed Him, knowing that she was dead. {54} But He put them all outside, took her by the hand and called, saying, "Little girl, arise." {55} Then her spirit returned, and she arose immediately. And He commanded that she be given something to eat. {56} And her parents were astonished, but He charged them to tell no one what had happened.

Some Things to Think About

1. How do you feel when you think about dying?
2. Why don't we have to be afraid of dying?
3. Is it all right to sing joyful songs at a believer's funeral? Why?
4. To whom should we go for help in times of sickness or any other trouble?
5. Does God always heal our sickness or diseases? Explain.

Hymn - Read the words of Hymn 206 (verse 2) and explain these phrases:

Jesus, my Redeemer lives; I, too, unto life shall waken.
Endless joy my Savior gives; shall my courage, then, be shaken?
Shall I fear, or could the Head rise and leave His members dead?

"I, too, unto life shall waken."

"...could the Head rise and leave His members dead?"

Memory Passage

John 11:25 - Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live."

Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus, teach us to come to You with all our needs just like Jairus did. Give us a faith that trusts that You will take care of us in times of sickness. We know that because You died for us and rose again on Easter, we do not need to fear death. Help us to believe that our death will be just the beginning of everlasting life with You in Heaven. We thank You for conquering sin and death for us. Keep us faithful until death. Amen.
