1 Samuel 16

The Story

Now the LORD said to Samuel the prophet, "Take oil to anoint a new king. Go to Bethlehem to a man named Jesse. I will choose a new king from his sons."

So Samuel did what the LORD said, and went to Bethlehem.

When Samuel saw Jesse's oldest son, Eliab, he said, "Surely the Lord wants me to anoint Eliab as king."

But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not look at his appearance. For the Lord does not see as man sees; for man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart."

So Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. Samuel said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one." Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. Again Samuel said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one." Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen these. Do you have any other sons?"

Then Jesse said, "The youngest son is keeping the sheep."

Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and bring him."

David came to Samuel and the LORD said, "Arise, anoint him; for this is the one to be king!"

Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed David in the middle of his brothers; and God was with him.

King Saul was still alive, but he did not have God's Spirit in him and he had a troubling spirit. The only thing that made him feel better was music played on a harp.

Then one of the servants told about David, who was very good at playing a harp. Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, "Send me your son David, who is with the sheep."

So David came to Saul. So it was whenever the troubling spirit was upon Saul, that David would take a harp and play it. Then Saul would become refreshed and well, and the distressing spirit would depart from him.

1 Samuel 16

The Story

The children of Israel asked the Lord to give them kings to rule their country. For many years Saul was the king. God decided to replace Saul as king so God spoke to the prophet Samuel.

Now the LORD said to Samuel, "Take oil to anoint a new king. Go to Bethlehem to a man named Jesse. I will choose a new king from his sons."

So Samuel did what the LORD said, and went to Bethlehem.

When Samuel saw Jesse's oldest son, Eliab, he said, "Surely the Lord wants me to anoint Eliab as king."

But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not look at his appearance. For the Lord does not see as man sees; for man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart."

So Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. Samuel said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one." Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. Again Samuel said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one." Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen these. Do you have any other sons?"

Then Jesse said, "The youngest son is keeping the sheep." Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and bring him."

David came to Samuel and the LORD said, "Arise, anoint him; for this is the one to be king!"

Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed David in the middle of his brothers; and God was with him.

King Saul was still alive, but he did not have God's Spirit in him and he had a troubling spirit. The only thing that made him feel better was music played on a harp.

Then one of the servants told about David, who was very good at playing a harp. Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, "Send me your son David, who is with the sheep."

David came to Saul and it was whenever the troubling spirit was upon Saul, that David would take a harp and play it. Then Saul would become refreshed and well, and the distressing spirit would depart from him.

Which of these two would you choose for a friend? Why?
The boy on the right steals from people. Would he make a good friend?

Did you look at the outward appearance to decide on a friend? In today's lesson we will learn that God looks at the heart and not the outward appearance as He chooses a new king to replace the now unbelieving Saul.

David Anointed King - 1 Samuel 16

Now the LORD said to Samuel, "How long will you mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and go; I am sending you to Jesse the Bethlehemite. For I have provided Myself a king among his sons."

{2} And Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears it, he will kill me."

And the LORD said, "Take a heifer with you, and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.' {3} Then invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; you shall anoint for Me the one I name to you."

{4} So Samuel did what the LORD said, and went to Bethlehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, "Do you come peaceably?"

{5} And he said, "Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice." Then he consecrated Jesse and his sons, and invited them to the sacrifice.

{6} So it was, when they came, that he looked at Eliab and said, "Surely the Lord's anointed is before Him."

{7} But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not look at his appearance or at the height of his stature, because I have refused him. For the Lord does not see as man sees; for man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart."

{8} So Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one." {9} Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one." {10} Thus Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen these." {11} And Samuel said to Jesse, "Are all the young men here?"

Then he said, "There remains yet the youngest, and there he is, keeping the sheep."

And Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and bring him. For we will not sit down till he comes here."

{12} So he sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, with bright eyes, and good-looking.

And the LORD said, "Arise, anoint him; for this is the one!"

{13} Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and the Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel arose and went to Ramah.

{14} But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and a distressing spirit from the LORD troubled him.

{15} And Saul's servants said to him, "Surely, a distressing spirit from God is troubling you. {16} Let our master now command your servants, who are before you, to seek out a man who is a skillful player on the harp; and it shall be that he will play it with his hand when the distressing spirit from God is upon you, and you shall be well."

{17} So Saul said to his servants, "Provide me now a man who can play well, and bring him to me."

{18} Then one of the servants answered and said, "Look, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skillful in playing, a mighty man of valor, a man of war, prudent in speech, and a handsome person; and the LORD is with him."

{19} Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, "Send me your son David, who is with the sheep." {20} And Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine, and a young goat, and sent them by his son David to Saul.

{21} So David came to Saul and stood before him. And he loved him greatly, and he became his armorbearer. {22} Then Saul sent to Jesse, saying, "Please let David stand before me, for he has found favor in my sight."

{23} And so it was, whenever the spirit from God was upon Saul, that David would take a harp and play it with his hand. Then Saul would become refreshed and well, and the distressing spirit would depart from him.

INNER AIM

God knows all things, even the thoughts and intents of the heart

BACKGROUND

(Rupprecht Bible History References, Vol. 1, pp. 286-289)

King Saul had disobeyed an explicit command from the Lord. As a result, the Lord rejected him as king. The Lord now chose a young man named David to become his successor. The Lord sent the prophet Samuel to anoint David as king.

v. 1 Jesse was grandson of Boaz and Ruth. He lived in or near Bethlehem. He was a man of some means and had eight sons. The Lord would choose one of his sons to become the next king of Israel.

vs. 2-3 Samuel was afraid Saul would come and kill him if he found out that he anointed a new king in Israel. The Lord, therefore, told Samuel what to do. He was to go to Bethlehem to sacrifice and to invite Jesse to come.

vs. 6-10 Samuel was sure Jesse's firstborn son, Eliab, was God's choice to become the next king. The Lord said no and then went on to explain. Seven of Jesse's sons passed before Samuel. None of them was to become king.

vs. 11-13 David, the youngest, was chosen by the Lord. He wasn't even present at the sacrifice. He was a shepherd and was tending the sheep. The Lord revealed to Samuel that David was the one chosen to become king. David was then anointed, and God the Holy Spirit was poured out upon him.

v. 14 An evil spirit replaced the Holy Spirit in Saul's heart and life. He had disobeyed and forsaken the Lord and did not sincerely repent. He had fallen from grace and had become an unbeliever.

vs. 15-16 Saul's servants tried to help their king. Certain music gave Saul some relief. A skillful musician was sought.

vs. 17-18 David was chosen. He not only played the harp very well, but he was honorable, strong, wise, and good-looking as well. Most important of all, they knew that "the Lord was with him." They did not, however, know that David had been anointed by Samuel the prophet to be the next king.

vs. 21 David became Saul's personal attendant, eventually his armorbearer. He was in a position of high honor. The Lord was training and preparing David to become the next king of Israel.

vs. 23 Saul was granted some relief, but he did not turn again to the Lord. He remained an unbeliever the rest of his life.

STUDENT PRAYER

Lord God, heavenly Father, to You belongs "the Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory." You govern the affairs of men and nations. You govern our individual lives. You know all things; You know what is best. Your will be done. You know even the thoughts and intents of our hearts. O Lord, forgive our many sins and help us live a God-pleasing life, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

PRESENTATION

At first the Children of Israel lived under a theocracy in Canaan, the land of promise. God raised up prophets and judges. He spoke and ruled through them. After a time the people asked for a king like their heathen neighbors had. God gave them a king. The prophet Samuel was sent by God to anoint Saul as Israel's first king. When Saul later turned away from the Lord, the Lord rejected him as king and chose another-David.

APPLICATIONS

When the Lord chose Saul to become king, Saul was a believer. As the years went by, Saul fell from faith. He trusted in himself and not the Lord. He rejected the Lord in his unbelief, and the Lord rejected him as king.

The Lord knows all things. He knows the thoughts and intents of our hearts. We may be able to fool others, but we can't fool the Lord.
