

The Tenth Plague/The First Passover

Exodus 12

The Story

In our last lesson we learned about the nine plagues or troubles God sent Egypt. The picture on this page will help you remember.

Why did God send these troubles? Did Pharaoh let God's people leave his country?

Today's lesson will tell of the last plague sent to Egypt. Will Pharaoh finally let the people leave? Let's find out.

God told Moses about a very important day - the Passover. Why was it called the Passover?

To get ready for the Passover every family of God's people should take an unblemished lamb and kill it. Then they should take some of the blood and put it on the doorposts of the house. The meat of the lamb should be roasted and eaten with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. The meal should be eaten in a hurry and they should be ready to leave.

The people of God did as Moses told them.

At midnight the LORD passed over the houses of God's people who had the blood of the lamb on the doorpost. The LORD killed the firstborn of any in Egypt who did not have blood on their doorposts and He also killed the firstborn of their livestock.

Do you see why it was called the Passover?

Pharaoh's firstborn died and he was very sad. In all of Egypt there was a great cry because not a house was without someone dead.

Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron that night and said, "Get up and go out from my people. Go serve the LORD as you have said. Take your animals and go."

All of God's people immediately left Egypt where they had lived for 430 years. The people of Egypt had given them silver, gold and clothing before they left. There was a great number of people. Possibly as many as 2,000,000 people plus all of their animals left Egypt that day.

God saved His people from death and delivered them from Egypt.

God commanded the people to celebrate the Passover every year at the same time. They would have the same meal of lamb, unleavened bread and bitter herbs. They would tell their children how the LORD passed over their houses in Egypt so that none of their firstborn was killed.

We no longer celebrate the Passover because Jesus, the perfect Lamb of God shed His blood on the cross to take away our sins. We are now saved from death and given life and heaven.

Jesus, our Passover Lamb, was sacrificed for us.

Activity One - Get the lamb to the doorpost following the path. Write the letters in boxes under the maze as you go along. It will spell a very important word from today'

Hidden Word:

Passage

John 1:29 "Behold! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!"

Activity Two - Trace the lines or glue strips of paper or popsicle sticks to make a doorway and a cross. Paint or color red on the doorpost to show how the blood of the lamb was placed for the Passover. Paint or color red on the ends of the cross to show the blood of the Lamb of God shed for our sins with the nails to his hands and feet and the crown of thorns on His head.

Hymn - TLH 147

O Christ, Thou Lamb of God, that takest away
The sin of the world, have mercy upon us!
O Christ, Thou Lamb of God, that takest away
The sin of the world, have mercy upon us!
O Christ, Thou Lamb of God, that takest away
The sin of the world, grant us Thy peace!
