Luke 10

Hearing God's Word was the most important thing for Mary.

The Story

Not far from Jerusalem, there was a little village called Bethany. Jesus had special friends who lived there. They were sisters, named Mary and Martha. Their brother, Lazarus, also lived with them.

One day when Jesus came to Bethany, Martha invited Him to come to their house for a meal.

Martha was very busy preparing the meal for Jesus. She wanted to show her love for Him by cooking a good meal.

While Martha was working, Mary sat at Jesus' feet and listened to every word He said. He was teaching her the Word of God.

Martha thought that Mary should be helping her with the meal. There was a lot of work to be done. Martha thought that cooking a good meal was more important than just sitting and listening to Jesus.

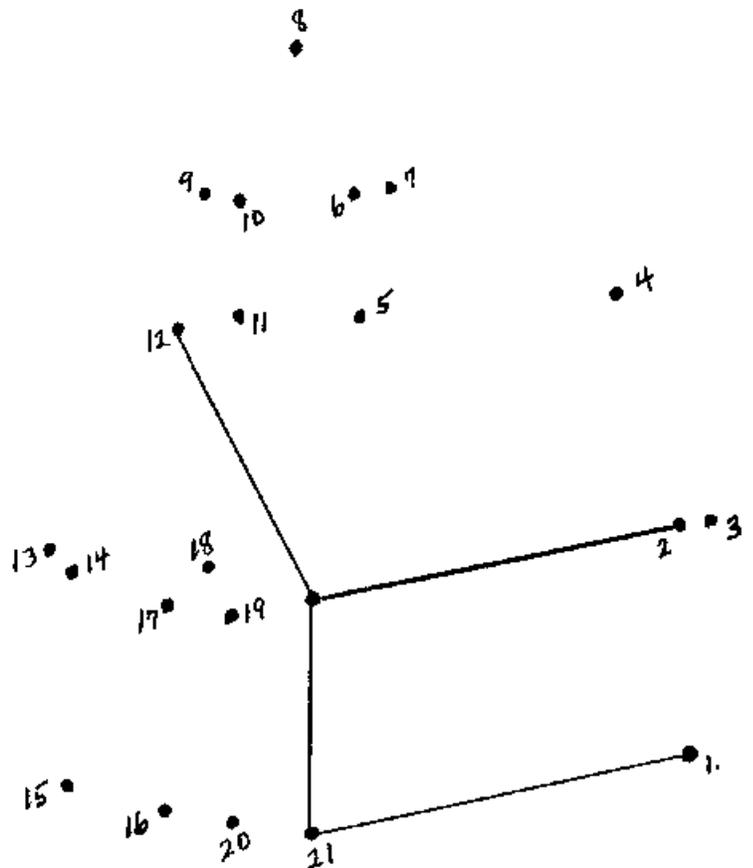

Finally, Martha came to Jesus and said, "Don't You care that my sister is just sitting there while I'm doing all the work by myself? Please tell her to come and help me."

But Jesus said, "Martha, Martha, you are worried about many things, but Mary is doing the most important thing. She is listening to the Word of God, and she will always remember what she has learned. No one can ever take that away from her."

Hearing the Word of God is more important than anything else that we do in this life. We need to try to be more like Mary, and always hear and learn God's Word whenever we can.

Activity One - Connect the dots to see one of the places where we can sit at Jesus' feet and hear His Word. Color the picture.

6. We should be more like Mary.

7. It's all right to stay home from church and cook a meal for the pastor.

8. God's Word is the most important thing in our life.

Activity Three - There are many places where we can hear and learn the Word of God. Find these and circle them.

Hearing God's Word is the most important thing for us.

3. My friend asked me to spend the night at his house on Saturday, but his/her family doesn't attend church. What should I do?
4. I like to sit with my friends in church, but sometimes we talk or write notes instead of listening to the sermon. What should I do?
5. I have a chance to go camping with my friend this summer, but it is the same week that VBS is scheduled. What should I do?

Hymn - TLH 366

Wilt thou find this one thing needful, Turn from all created things
Unto Jesus and be heedful of the blessed joy He brings.
For where God and Man both in one are united,
With God's perfectness the heart is delighted;
There, there is the worthiest lot and the best,
My One and my All, and my Joy and my Rest.

How were Mary's thoughts devoted Here to me a joy to find
As intent each word she noted, At her Savior's feet reclined!
How kindled her heart, how devout was its feeling,
While hearing the lessons that Christ was revealing!
For Jesus all earthly concerns she forgot,
And all was repaid in that one happy lot.

Prayer

Help us realize how important Your Word is, so that we will choose it above other things as Mary did. ## VOCABULARY

OUTER AIM

Jesus welcomed into the home of Martha and Mary

INNER AIM

BACKGROUND Rupprecht Bible History References, Vol. 2, pp. 236 ff.

Jesus and His disciples were on the way from Perea (land east of the Jordan river) to Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of the Dedication of the Temple. This festival had its beginnings some 160 years before the birth of Christ. It was also called the Festival of Lights. It is still observed by the Jews today. It is called Hanukkah. As they journeyed, the disciples, and perhaps Lazarus, with them went on to Jerusalem; Jesus stayed behind in Bethany at the home of Martha and Mary. This was a home that the Lord entered often and to which He enjoyed going.

Everything in life is a matter of priorities. People who can't prioritize their time will often find that although they have been running around all day, the things that need to get done are not done. People who can't prioritize their finances will constantly find themselves in debt or other financial troubles.

But the biggest problem that we all have is that we tend to prioritize the earthly over the spiritual. It is easy to think that eating and cleaning are more important than prayer and God's word, but Jesus teaches otherwise.

In our sinfulness we often think that our service to God is what is most important. Jesus teaches us that he cares far more about serving us than about us serving him.

Mark 10:45 45 "For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."

Our whole lives we are taught it is more blessed to give than to receive. And that is true when we are talking about one another. But it is not true when we are talking about Jesus. Jesus has something to give us that is far more important than anything we could give him.

The teachers notes for today's lesson have a good suggestion for introducing the story. Bring three objects, a life preserver, an apple, some money. If you are on a sinking ship, which is most important? Because of our sin we are on a sinking ship. This earth is headed for judgement. The only thing that can save us is Jesus' forgiveness. Just like the life preserver the most important thing for us is Jesus' blessings in word and sacrament.

A certain village - Bethany, only a couple miles from Jerusalem, Jesus on more than one occasion stayed there when he had reason to visit Jerusalem. This takes place 3-4 months before Jesus' death. He is on his way to Jerusalem to celebrate the festival of dedication. The festival of dedication is well known to most of us even today, but is usually known by a different name, Hannukah or the festival of lights. This was a celebration of the rededication of the temple after it was defiled by Antiochus IV Epiphanes. That would put our story in mid-December.

Martha - Martha had two siblings, Mary and Lazarus. Martha is probably the eldest and it sounds like the house belongs to her. In Aramaic Martha actually means mistress, as in mistress of the house. Out of love for Jesus, she regularly welcomes him into her home and provides for him. What a wonderful testament to her faith and love for Jesus, although as we are going to see she takes it a little too far. "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Therefore, tell her to help me."

How often do we think that we are right and that the Lord, if he were here, would back us up. Very often couples will come to me for counseling, each convinced that they are right and the other is wrong. In reality they aren't coming to hear God's word, they are coming so that I can back them up and tell their spouse they are wrong. The problem is that because of our sinful nature our priorities are wrong, and so hard for us to see that. We put being right first. It is more important to be forgiving than to be right. The one who is first to forgive is the one who wins the argument. We put cleanliness and tasks first. It is more important to have a loving attitude than to have a clean house. We put money first. It is better to be broke and happily married, than to be rich and be divorced. Above all else we ought to put the word of God first.

Martha's words may actually emphasize her love of Jesus, and in a good way her jealousy of Mary. Perhaps she was motivated because she too wanted to sit and listen to Jesus, but felt like she had to finish the tasks first. Perhaps she wanted Mary to help her so she could get done and they could sit together at Jesus' feet. Jesus however reminds Martha and us not to allow earthly tasks to keep us from sitting at his feet. Simply put the housework down and come sit at my feet.

Jesus' words also show his love for Martha and for us. He doesn't need the food and service that Martha was offering. He doesn't care about our service to him nearly as much as he cares about his service to us. He would much rather serve us than that we serve him. So many churches get this backwards, they care more about serving God rather than receiving Jesus' service.

Luke 10:41-42 41 And Jesus answered and said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things. 42 "But one thing is needed, and Mary has chosen that good part, which will not be taken away from her.

What a privilege it is to sit at the feet of Jesus. How often have you had questions about God and thought wouldn't it be nice to ask Jesus, Or been told we'll find out when we get to heaven. Mary and Martha had the opportunity to sit at the feet of Jesus and listen and ask questions. But Martha thought it more important to clean up and serve the food. It is easy to judge other people and think they should do this or they should do that. But life is always a matter of priorities. You always have to choose.

Martha thought that cooking and cleaning should come first. Jesus disagreed. Mary had her priorities straight, to receive Jesus' gifts comes first. Getting our priorities straight not only brings us closer to God but releases us from the cares and worries of this world. Jesus promises that when we seek him first he will take care of all the rest.

Matthew 6:33 But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

There is nothing more important than going to Jesus to receive from him the blessing and gifts that he offers. What a privilege to set down our daily tasks and sit with Mary at Jesus' feet.

Titus 2:11-13 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ.
