

Absalom's Rebellion

2 Samuel 13:30 - 18:33

What would you do if you had a son who was rebelling against you?

What measures can you take to raise your children as children of God?

Prayer

Dear Lord,

Although our lives are filled with many difficulties, we take great comfort in knowing that we can turn to You for help.

Thank You for sending Your Son, Jesus Christ, to help us with our biggest problem, sin. Help us to concentrate on today's lesson, as we learn about how You delivered King David from the problems which he faced. Amen.

The Story - 2 Samuel 13:30 - 18:33 (Paraphrased)

King David's son, Absalom, ran away from home after killing his half-brother Amnon. When David heard that his son, Amnon, had been killed, he tore his clothes because he was very disturbed by the news. After this took place, David did not see Absalom for three years.

The king's general, Joab, saw that the king was concerned about Absalom. So Joab made arrangements for them to meet again. David was very happy to see his son again. But when Absalom returned, he wanted to take his father's position as king.

In order to steal his father's position, Absalom tried to win the hearts of the people. He did this by taking over the king's job of settling legal complaints. His goal was to get people to question whether King David cared about their legal problems. Absalom also bowed down to the people and kissed them in order to gain their favor. Eventually, more and more people followed Absalom instead of King David.

Finally, Absalom declared himself king when he was away in Hebron. King David saw that Absalom's rebellion was a threat to his safety and his people's safety, so he decided to get out of Jerusalem along with his servants. He also did not want to see the city of Jerusalem destroyed by war. David then crossed the Brook Kidron and went up to the Mount of Olives, where he wept bitterly.

While David was traveling, one man came out to bless David. However, there was also a man named Shimei who came out to curse and throw stones at David. One of David's followers, Abishai, recommended that this man be killed for his cursing. However, David responded, "Let him alone, and let him curse; for so the LORD has ordered him. It may be that the LORD will look on my affliction, and that the LORD will repay me with good for his cursing this day" (16:11-12).

Meanwhile, Absalom took control of Jerusalem. Then he asked his advisor, Ahithophel, what he should do next. Ahithophel advised that an army of 12,000 men chase David and kill him. Instead of going along with Ahithophel's plan, Absalom asked another advisor, whose name was Hushai. Hushai recommended a different plan, and Absalom liked it better. However, Absalom did not know that Hushai was actually on King David's side. Because Absalom chose to follow Hushai's advice, Hushai was able to warn David about the plan. David then gathered his army for battle. He wanted to go along and lead the army, but his people convinced him to stay behind. Before sending his army to battle, he told them to "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom" (18:5).

During the battle, David's army crushed Absalom's army. While riding on his mule, Absalom's head got stuck in a terebinth tree. Going against King David's instructions, Joab and his men killed Absalom while he was still hanging in the tree. Then they threw his body into a pit in the woods and piled stones on top of him.

When King David was told that his son had been killed, he was very sorrowful. He cried out, "O my son Absalom - my son, my son Absalom - if only I had died in your place! O Absalom my son!" (18:33).

Prayer

Dear Lord,

In today's lesson, we learned that You delivered King David from his troubles with Absalom. But King David had a bigger problem and it's the same problem we all have. This problem is sin. In our life on earth, we face all sorts of temptation from the devil, the world, and our sinful flesh. Whenever we fall into sin, call us to repentance and restore us unto Your fold. Give us strength to endure all the various trial and tribulations that come our way. We know that You can and will deliver us from every evil. In Jesus' saving Name. Amen.
